

The President's Commission on the Status of Women (PCSW) at Mississippi State University invites submissions for the Student Leadership Award, which recognizes and develops leadership skills for outstanding undergraduates. The deadline is March 8, 2019.

Eligible MSU undergraduate students who identify as women and/or female are invited to submit an essay (1,000-words maximum) describing campus involvement, field of study, community service and related work as it impacts and improves the lives of women. Include a resume of accomplishments, awards, honors, previous experience and career plans for future work and service.

Submit the essay and resume in PDF format directly to Lateshia Butler at lateshia.butler@msstate.edu with "PCSW Student Leadership Award" in the subject line. Two award recipients will be selected.

Award recipients will receive a travel award (up to $1000) paid to attend the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders at the University of Maryland, College Park on May 29–June 1, 2019 or a leadership conference of the awardee's choosing with approval from the PCSW committee; a cash award of $150; lunch with MSU President Mark E. Keenum; and recognition at the PCSW award ceremony on April 10, 2019 at 2:00 pm.

Visit www.nccwsl.org for complete details and information about the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders.

-----Submission Data-----

Contact: Lateshia Butler

Submitter confirms that this announcement meets the requirements of MSU Policy OP 60.123 regarding invitations to University events.

Recipients: Faculty, Staff, Undergraduate Students, Graduate Students, Deans, Directors and Department Heads, Benefits Eligible Employees at All Campuses

Authorized-By: President